HOW TO DECIDE

FOCUS Training is a leadership development firm. For 30 years, we have been building and delivering training programs across industries. We work with organizations to customize programs that: drive engagement, retain talent, improve performance, and strengthen culture. We define a leader as somebody in your organization that has influence over people, process or projects.

HOW MANY LEADERS DO YOU NEED TO DEVELOP?

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

"I appreciated how I was immediately able to take a lesson from the Accelerate Institute and have an action item right away. It wasn't that I was given 'homework,' it was that I felt that I could immediately apply what I learned to something that was going on at work.

Joe, Molson Coors Beverage Company

"CPI has been committed to utilizing the Accelerate and Elevate Institutes from FOCUS Training for years. These programs have consistently delivered outstanding growth that impacts our new and experienced leaders. They provide a common experience and nomenclature for us to utilize as development continues back in the office.

Tony, CEO, Crisis Prevention Institute

"I have had a number of my high potentials and new people leaders go through the Institutes. Not only do they come back with best practices from other organizations, I've seen each one demonstrate a higher level of confidence when approaching critical conversations and coaching with their teams. The Institute has better positioned my people to excel in developing and leading teams."

Anne, ASQ

"The content about leadership was fantastic and FOCUS did a great job bringing the content to life. But the real magic was sharing the experience with people that aren't in your company or industry. Hearing other perspectives and insights helped me to examine my leadership effectiveness and challenged me to implement some fresh ideas with my team."

Mike, Kohl's

"This program is like no other. The value proposition is that you're not hearing 'textbook' material, but are actually learning how to handle situations and are able to simulate. This allows you to practice how to execute while having a mentor providing well-intended constructive feedback."

Todd, Medical College of Wisconsin
